Cyberwellness matters in School

Our curriculum aims to equip students with the knowledge and skills to harness the power of ICT for positive purposes, maintain a positive presence in cyberspace and be safe and responsible users of ICT.

Cyberwellness matters at Home

- Set ground rules and expectations for internet use.
- Be aware of what your child is doing online
- Navigate the internet together to understand their usage.
- Model good digital habits for your child.
- Activate parental controls on your home devices.

in school

Grading System

Your child is offering either Standard, Standard/Foundation or Foundation subjects.

Standard → G3 (Express) → 4 – 20 points

Standard / Foundation → G3 / G2 (N(A))

→ less than 20 to 24 points

Foundation → G3 / G2 /G1 → 21 – 28 points

Grading System

Standard → G3 (Express) → 4 – 20 points

AL 1 – 90 and above

AL 2 – 85- 89

AL 3 – 80 – 84

AL 4 – 75 – 79

AL 5 – 65 – 74

N.B. a 65 mark in P4 is not the same as 65 mark in PSLE

Grading System

Standard / Foundation → G3 / G2 (N(A))

→ less than 20 to 24 points

AL 6 – 45 – 64 or 75 – 100 (Grade A)

AL 7 – 20 – 44 or 30 – 74 (Grade B)

Again a 45 mark in P4 is not equal to a 45 mark in PSLE

Grading System

AL 8 – 0 – 19 or 0 – 29 (Grade C)

An AL 8 in either English or Math or both would mean a student has failed PSLE and will need to repeat.

Our Shuqunites are able to clear English, but some struggle with Math.

Grading System

Higher Mother Tongue grades

Distinction – 80 – 100

Merit – 65 – 79

Pass – 50 – 64

Ungraded – 0 - 49

HMT grades do not have an impact on your PSLE AL Total Score

Expectations for HMT

Higher Mother Tongue

- Is a 2-year commitment
- Involves after-school lessons and more assignments
- Offers those taking HCL a slight advantage to enter SAP schools. HMT at a secondary schools is offered to those who do well in their PSLE even if they did not study HMT in Primary School.

Expectations for our Shuqunites

Those offering Standard Subjects should aim to qualify for G3.

Those offering 1 Foundation Subject can have a similar aspiration.

Whether your child keeps to the same subject combination in P6 is dependent on his end-of-year P5 performance.

IT IS NOT WHAT YOU DO
FOR YOUR CHILDREN, but what you have taught them to do for themselves
THAT WILL MAKE THEM
SUCCESSFUL HUMAN BEINGS.

Relationships with you & with their friends

Nurturing a Winner

Your relationship with your child can change significantly if:

- you do not spend time to interact with your child on a daily basis on matters beyond schoolwork
- you do not restrict their use of handphones and mobile devices
- it is not alright for your child to make a mistake, learn from it and face the consequences

Nurturing a Winner

We have noticed that some of our students have reached puberty:

How do you support your child through this awkward and sometimes painful period in their pre-adolescence?

How do you manage when your child tests boundaries with you?

Avoid allowing social media to dictate the norms for your child

Parenting

Even as kids reach adolescence, they need more than ever for us to watch over them. Adolescence is not about letting go. It's about hanging on during a very bumpy ride.

a Pre-teen

Nurturing a Winner with friends

Friends, even online ones, have become more important to your child

- In terms of:
- What they have
 - What they are allowed to do
 - How they spend their free time / the 'freedom' they enjoy

Not spending time with your child means that he/she will look more to friends, even online ones, as your child tests boundaries.

Parenting

IF WE DON'T SHAPE
OUR KIDS, THEY WILL BE SHAPED BY OUTSIDE
FORCES THAT DON'T CARE WHAT shape
OUR KIDS ARE IN.

Dr. Louise Hart

Nurturing a Winner with friends

As your child tests boundaries, mistakes and misunderstandings can happen and your response makes the difference

We also seek parents' cooperation in serious cases and when punishment needs to be meted out. We do so for the good of the child.

Sending the right signals about school

Sending the right signals about school

What you consider important will be noted by your child. School needs to be important for your child.

Right signals to send:

No latecoming

No unnecessary absences

No excuses about homework

Raising a Winner at Home

Establishing a routine at home sets your child up for success – it is not too late but you might need to negotiate with your child

Send the right signals by checking your child's homework which should be neatly done by him/her. It means providing him/her time to do so.

If you can coach your child, teach your child to help him/herself but do not do the work for him/her. Doesn't mean additional homework and tuition may not be the answer.

Sending the right signals about school

Strong foundation in subjects paves the way to success in PSLE.

It is a 2-year journey.

Some parents may hire tutors to support their children. Your children can cope on their own if they pay attention and have a sound home routine.

For parents who still wish to hire tutors, do hold your tutors accountable for your child's progress

Sending the right signals about school

There's much to look forward to in school

- More after-school activities (CCA, Leadership , after-school support)
- Competitions, P5 Camp, NE Show, Learning Journeys
 - Our 100th Anniversary Celebrations

Your child needs to learn to manage his/her time and prioritise well

Sending the right signals about school

Some of your children are displaying capabilities in CCA and Leadership. Teach your child to learn to commit to building his/her strengths and practise time management skills to leverage the training provided.

Some may want to consider building up their portfolio for DSA (Direct School Admission) application in P6. The school will also help to prepare eligible students in some aspects.

Parenting is a little forever.”
